County Stock Show slated for January 15-16

The 82nd edition of the Coke County Junior Livestock Show will be held Friday, January 15, and Saturday, January 16, at the Sterling Lindsey Memorial Exhibition Building in Robert Lee.

The 2020 show will look a little different from past years due to Covid-19. The show will be closed to the public, however it will be live streamed on the Coke County Livestock Association Facebook page. There will be no meal, concession stand, and no live sale. Masks will be required at all times for exhibitors and parents.

The event will kick off at Thursday, January 14, at 4 pm when exhibitors may begin moving steers into the barn, entering at the south side.

Beginning at 8 am on Friday, January 15, at 8 am, steers will be weighed and classed.

The Steer Show will kick off at 11 am. Exhibitors may begin moving hogs in to the barns on the north side at 1 pm.

Saturday, January 16, will begin with hogs weighed and classed beginning at 8 am on the north side of the barn.

Rabbits may also begin being moved into the barn (south side) at 8 am.

The Hog show will begin at 10 am with the Sheep and Goat Shows beginning at 3 pm.

The Rabbit Show will be held between the Hog and Sheep/Goat Shows. Sheep and Goats will be weighed in and classed beginning at 1 pm.

Upon completion of each show, all exhibitors are asked to load their animals and exit the barns.

If you would like to make a monetary donation to help support these hardworking kids during these uncertain times, donations may be mailed to: Coke County Livestock Association, PO Box 555, Robert Lee, Texas 76945.

Snow! Snow! And More Snow!!!! After the nice snowfall on New Year's Eve, Coke County citizens woke up to even more snow Sunday morning, January 10, 2021. By the time it ended that evening, some areas in Coke County had received over 8 inches of heavy, wet snow. With the unusual weather, we are once again including pics of kids of all sizes enjoying the fluffy white stuff!
