

Robert Lee Hispanic Cemetery Association meeting slated

The Robert Lee Hispanic Cemetery Association will be meeting on Tuesday, January 31, at 6 pm at Robert Lee City Hall. All persons interested in the upkeep of the cemetery are welcome to attend. Donations are always appreciated.

ECA classes to begin next month

The East Coke County EMS will be offering an ECA class beginning February 13, 2012, in accordance with TDHS #607175.

The course is approximately 60 classroom hours and will be held in Bronte. Classes will be two evenings per week and two full Saturdays with completion scheduled for March 15.

The class is open to anyone wishing to attend who will be at least 18 years of age at the time of the test.

The Blackwell, Robert Lee and Bronte Emergency Medical Services are all in desperate need of volunteers and anyone interested is encouraged to contact Gwen Dyess at (325) 895-1967, Janet Wommack at 473-5388 or Jan Magness at 473-8567.

... Ballot Propositions

School Choice:

The state should fund education by allowing dollars to follow the child instead of the bureaucracy, through a program which allows parents the freedom to choose their child's school, public or private, while also saving significant taxpayer dollars. Yes or No.

Repealing Obamacare:

Congress should immediately repeal the Patient Protection and Affordable

Care Act (otherwise known as Obamacare) and reject the rationing of healthcare by government or the intrusion by government into the doctor-patient relationship.

Yes or No.

Public Prayer:

Government should be prohibited from restricting the content of public prayer.

Yes or No.

Balanced Budget/Combining Government growth:

Out of control spending should be stopped at all levels of federal and state government through constitutional amendments limiting any increase in government spending to the combined increase of population and inflation without voter approval.

Yes or No.

Redistricting:

The Texas Legislature should redraw the court-imposed lines for Congress and State legislative districts in its upcoming session in order to remedy inequities.

Yes or No.

Lunch and Learn slated

There will be a cancer prevention and self screening presentation at noon Tuesday, January 31, in the FUMC fellowship hall.

The program is presented by Skylar White, RN Nurse Navigator for the Shannon Cancer Center. She will also discuss what is available through the Cancer Empowerment and Resource Center at Shannon. Lunch will be provided.

Please RSVP so we can get a head count for the meal. For more information and to RSVP, contact Misty McGlothlin, RN at 473-2069.

Texas Farm Bureau introduces new Texas-Ready brand in Coke County

Coke-Sterling County Farm Bureau members are excited about a new brand that builds

4-H Members Attend Livestock Judging Contest! 4-H members recently participated in the District 7 Livestock judging contest. Over 300 4-H members from twenty one counties across the district attended this event. 4-H members analyze the best animal from different class species such as swine, goats, beef, sheep. Brady Clawson was sixth high individual in sheep and seventh high individual in the swine class. The members included Darby Duncan, Kaitlyn Sweker, Brady Clawson, Logan Chumney, India Chumney, Cade Chumney, Stephen Oleksiuk, and Hunter Jowers.

on Texas Farm Bureau's proud history and celebrates the Texas spirit.

"Whether they live in a town or city, the new brand was introduced to secure a strong foundation for Farm Bureau members," Coke-Sterling County Farm Bureau President John Ross Copeland said. "Texas is our home, our identity and our way of life. We are prepared to help all Texans face the challenges and opportunities ahead."

The new brand was unveiled at the 78th Texas Farm Bureau Annual Meeting in Corpus Christi on Dec. 4. The brand represents all of Texas Farm Bureau-county Farm Bureaus, the state organization and affiliated member service companies - under a common communications approach and a brand new logo.

"The new logo-with the Texas Lone Star and the red, white, and blue of the Texas flag-immediately conveys Texas Farm Bureau's commitment to the Lone Star State and to all Texans, now and in the future," John Ross Copeland said.

Coke-Sterling County Farm Bureau will roll out the new brand through updated signage, materials and communications efforts.

"Coke-Sterling County Farm Bureau will continue to be a trusted source of protection, advocacy and education for our neighbors," John Ross Copeland said. "We go the extra mile to put our members first-taking action, setting a path for Texans to live well. That's why Texas Farm Bureau is Texas-Ready: For what's now, and what's next."
