Sorosis Club meets

By Lanette Fletcher

The Sorosis Study Club met in the home of Jane Cumbie on Thursday, January 16, 2014. Fran Sonnenberg reported to the club about the BHRC Christmas Party. The club bought presents for three residents. Fran said the residents were so thrilled to get the gifts on their wish list; and Fran thanked Angel Cervenka for helping purchase and wrap the gifts.

The group discussed having a bake sale around Easter to help raise money for the club. It was tabled until next month.

There was discussion about ways the Sorosis Study club could use money raised from their projects to help the Bronte community. The club members will put their thinking caps on and continue to discuss ways they can help our little community!

The club voted in two more new members, Fran Crumpler and Teresa Swecker. The Sorosis Study Club has really grown the last few months and has gotten some great ladies who will definitely be assets to the club!

There was a suggestion that the club make a donation to the Coke County Livestock show. It was decided to donate $100.

Pat Lee had an absolutely wonderful program "Vintage Treasures of the Heart." All of the club members brought something special to them that was either "vintage", "antique", or possibly "retro". She explained the differences between the terms; and everyone decided they were definitely "vintage" and not antique! Everyone had a wonderful time seeing the different items the club members held near and dear to their hearts. It is such a pleasant experience to be around like Christian minded ladies who can laugh and enjoy each other's company in a "good old fashioned way."

Marilyn finally won the Chinese auction! She was so proud of herself! Members present were Janet Wommack, president, Marilyn Bivins, Angel Cervenka, Fran Crumpler, Jane Cumbie, Lanette Fletcher, Marian Gohman, Merle Kelso, Pat Lee, Mary Percifull, Martha Ratliff, Cynthia Robinson, Doris Sims, Fran Sonnenberg, Teresa Swecker, and Jane Wheat.

Can You Help?

The Robert Lee Cemetery Association has released a list of burial plots at the Robert Lee Cemetery which do not have permanent markers. Because of the possibility of graves being lost, the organization, according to their bylaws, requires a permanent marker to be placed within 30 days of burial. They have requested the public's assistance in obtaining information on family members of the deceased.
