Texas Brigades application deadline posted

The Texas Brigades program is looking for a few good leaders. Actually, they are looking for 170 leaders. The Texas Brigades' mission is to educate and empower youths with the leadership skills and knowledge in wildlife, fisheries, and land stewardship to become conservation ambassadors for a sustained natural resource legacy. This will be the 22nd year of the Brigades.

The application deadline is March 15, 2014 and may be found www.texas brigades.org/Applications/ applications.html.

Participants selected through competitive application process.

Helen Holdsworth, Executive Director, says they are looking for youth ages 13-17 years of No experience is necessary, but applicants should have a strong interest in learning about wildlife, natural resources, livestock, and/or environment. "We are looking for those with an interest in learning and then sharing what they have learned with their communities," reports Holdsworth.

The 4.5 days camps are held on private ranches across the

"These landowners open their gates to us for five days, allowing us to utilize the land as a living laboratory. Natural resource professionals give of their time to mentor the youth. This is a valuable networking opportunity," she said.

The cost of the camp is $400 but scholarships and financial

Robert Lee Cemetery Association asks for information

The Robert Lee Cemetery Association has released a list of burial plots at the Robert Lee Cemetery which do not have permanent markers. Because of the possibility of graves being lost, the organization, according to their bylaws, requires a permanent marker to be placed within 30 days of burial.

They have requested the public's assistance in obtaining information on family members of the deceased. If you recognize a name on this list and know how to get in touch with one of their family members, you are asked to relay that information by contacting George Grim at (325) 453-9902, Linda Burns at (325) 453-4305, or Jeffie Roberts at (325) 453-2957.
