Jameson

Mrs. Marie Jameson long-time resident of Silver, Texas, passed away October 8, 2014, in a Southlake skilled rehab center.

Mrs. Jameson was born January 2, 1927, in Colorado City, Texas. She was a graduate of Colorado High School in Colorado City, Texas. Mrs. Jameson actively supported school and scouting activities in the Silver community during the days of the Sun Oil Company residential camps in the 1950's and 1960's. She was an active member of the First Baptist Church in Silver and played the piano.

She was devoted to her family and her grandchildren were a very special part of her life. She was an excellent cook, and she prepared many delicious Thanksgiving and Christmas meals for her family. She also loved gardening, and had a "green thumb" for growing beautiful roses and a variety of vegetables.

Mrs. Jameson assisted her husband in running the cattle business by keeping accurate records, and in feeding and monitoring the herd. She often named many of the mother cows in the herd. She kept the "home fires burning" while he built his oil field service business during the Silver oil field development days.

There were many happy trips to Lake Travis near Austin, Texas, for fishing, swimming and water skiing. She enjoyed bowling and was in a competitive league and won multiple trophies in tournament play. Mrs. Jameson was an avid fan of the Dallas Cowboys and the Texas Rangers and rarely missed watching the games on TV.

Mrs. Jameson was an aviation enthusiast. She earned her private pilot license during the 1960s. She was a member of the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association. Many happy weekends were spent with family and friends flying to "Fly-in Breakfasts" across the southwest.

Mrs. Jameson was preceded in death by her parents, Graydon and Inez Howell, a sister Carolyn Ann Howell; J. P. Jameson, husband of 66 years and a son, Robert Jameson.

She is survived by her brother Rex Howell and wife, Jean of Austin, Texas; her daughter, Kay Hunter and husband, Glenn of Atlanta, Texas; son, Harold Jameson and wife, Joanna of Southlake, Texas; her beloved grandchildren, Jennifer Hunter, Candice Roberts, McKensi Jameson, Hallie Jameson, Natalie Bosworth and Stacy Anderson; six great grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.
