Statement from City of Robert Lee

by Leroy Casey, Mayor

After one of the council members was alerted by an individual of a possible billing discrepancy, an internal investigation was begun. Problems were discovered and a city employee was questioned. Steps were taken to resolve parts of the problem. An investigation by law enforcement has been requested.

A full disclosure will be made to the public following the completion of the investigation and if necessary, charges will be filed.
