Goat Roping! The Coke County Roping Club hosted a horseless goat roping on Saturday afternoon, October 16, 2021, at the arena in Bronte. The event had a turnout of 273 teams that roped. Winning the roping were Coy Speer (far right) and Wyatt Lloyd (third from left). They each received a handmade buckle for their efforts as well as prize money. Second and third places went to Dryden Virden (far left) and Wyatt Lloyd. Cory Lloyd (second from right) and Wyatt Lloyd took fourth place, with Rainen Virden (third from right) and Cory Lloyd placing fifth. Each of the second through fifth place teams also received prize money. Also pictured is Brandy Lloyd.

organization running each booth.

Friends of the RLCC October meeting scheduled

Are you curious about the Friends of the Robert Lee Care Center, new to the community, or looking for a new place to share your time and talents, then come to the next monthly meeting at 10 am on Monday, October 25, at 10 West 15th Street in Robert Lee.

The group will be finalizing the plans for the Fall Brown Bag Fundraiser, scheduled for Tuesday, November 9. They will also be discussing ideas for our next project.

Veterans Day Program to be held at BISD

Bronte ISD will hold a Veteran's Day program on Thursday, November 11, at 8:30 am at the Coke County Veterans Memorial (located at the corner of Railroad and Main Streets) in Bronte.

BISD would like to honor and remember Coke County veterans. If you are a service member or know a service member, Bronte ISD encourages you to this special program so that you or your service member may be recognized for service. Those who wish to wear their uniform are welcome to do so.

Please contact Bronte ISD at (325) 473-2511 by Friday, October 22, so that the school can recognize those veterans who wish to participate.

WCCHD meeting set for October 26
