Horns fall in first district contest

The Bronte Longhorns began District play this past Friday night in Eldorado. The Eagles scored twice in the first quarter and once in the second quarter to take a 20-0 lead into halftime.

In the second half, the Eagles scored three more times and went on to win the game 40-0. Yardage against the Eagles was tough to gain as their defense kept the Longhorn offense in check. Bronte was forced to punt 7 times on the night. For that reason and because of the Eldorado ball control offense, our defense was on the field for too many plays.

Although the Horns came out on the losing end of another game this year, they are still working to improve their skills and focusing on their next opponent. This week, the Horns are back at home as they take on the Irion County Hornets at 7:30 pm tonight.

Pastries for Parents! Bronte Elementary School invited all parents to drop off their children at school last Friday and enjoy pastries before beginning their day. Pastries were provided by the Longhorn Academic Boosters.

Bronte Shorthorns fall to Eagles

By Karl McCormack

The Bronte Shorthorns lost a tough, close game on Thursday to the Eldorado Eagles by a 36-30 score. The game was very competitive, with both teams making many good plays.

Bronte scored in the first quarter on a short run by Tanner Bedford. The TD was set up by a pass and long run from Bedford to Aaron Cervenka. Bedford ran in the two point conversion.

In the second period, the Shorthorns scored on a pass from Bedford to Shawn Puentez. The extra point failed. The Shorthorns trailed at halftime 16-14 to the Eagles. Bronte made an important stop right before the half on defense. Led by Emmanuel Casillas, Colton Martin, and Zach Jackson, the Shorthorns kept the Eagles out of the end zone.

Bedford scored again on a run around end in the third quarter. The two point conversion was made by Garrett Knight. Knight, Kevin Parks, Hunner Powell, and Nathan Arthur also contributed to numerous tackles on defense.

Puentez caught another TD pass from Bedford in the fourth quarter. The two point conversion was good on another run by Bedford. Eldorado scored late in the game on a QB sneak to win 36-30. The Shorthorns gave a good account of themselves and fought hard.

Their next game is on Thursday, October 3, in Mertzon against Irion County at 5 pm.

Lady Shorthorns earn a double win

The Lady Shorthorns traveled to Sterling City to play the Lady Eagles as the second round of the season begins. The 7th grade Shorthorns were motivated to start the game strong and continue to play at their intense level. They implemented a new defensive plan and covered the court well. With consistent serving and team communication, they took game one with a 25-12 win. Game 2 was a tighter match between the 2 teams. The Shorthorns started with a 4 point deficit and had to fight back with strong serves and passing skills to regain the lead. Game 2 went in favor of Bronte 25-21, allowing them to win the match.

The 8th grade team followed them with an exciting 2 game match victory. The Shorthorns played together as a team and stayed inspired throughout the game. The Lady Shorthorns took game 1 with a 25-16 win. Game 2 challenged the Lady Horns as their rival continued to get the ball back over the net continuously and had a 7 point lead at one point. After a quick time out and a minute to compose themselves, the Shorthorns did not let up on the Lady Eagles and fought to the end. The match win was earned by the Lady Shorthorns with a game 2 score of 25-21. The Lady Shorthorns will be meeting up with the Veribest Falcons next Monday at their court.

ACT Workshop! A large group of Bronte High School students signed up to attend the Chad Cargill ACT Test Prep workshop that was held at Anson High School recently. The workshop provided students with relevant, practical information on how to increase their ACT score. At the workshop, the students learned that the test will ask you the same questions just worded differently. The workshop covered what will be on the test and how to master the techniques. The students also learned about many testing strategies about the ACT as a whole and each of the four main sections including, English, Reading, Math and Science Reasoning.
