Longhorns take a tough loss against Steers

By Tell Rutledge
The Bronte High School football team lost a tough one last week to Robert Lee 24-6. Our boys played with great effort and toughness. We played a great game on defense but just struggled to get the ball moving on offense. We will play Oglesby this Friday in Blanket at 7 pm. There is no JV game this week.

Player Statistics

Spencer Smith - 7 tackles;
Teegan Minjarez - 14 carries for 53 yards, 21 tackles;
Jett Jackson - 11 tackles;
Cole Knight - 19 tackles, 1 INT.
The junior high team played a great game against Robert Lee this past Thursday but also lost 28-20. They will play Olfen this Thursday in Bronte at 5:30 pm.

RL secures homecoming win against Bronte

By Jose Morales
The Robert Lee Steers played the Bronte Longhorns on September 30 for the 107th edition of the Coke County Championship. The game started off slow for the Steers offense only finding the end zone on a couple of occasions before the half however, the Steer defense showed no signs of weakness and held the Longhorns to only one touchdown to take the lead at the half. The Steers would come out in the second half showing great defense, as they held the Longhorns scoreless in the second half. The Steer offense would continue to strive but came out and score late in the 4th quarter to seal the win and take back the championship belt. The Steers are now 6-0 and will try to remain undefeated as they play the Menard Yellowjackets on October 7 at home to begin district games. Steer fans come on out, fill the stands, and cheer on your Robert Lee Steers!
