Playoffs! The Bronte High School Lady Longhorns volleyball team is shown above celebrating after a recent playoff victory. The Lady Longhorns kicked off their playoff run in Sonora against Comstock on November 1 for the bi-district match. The ladies were victorious and continued on to the area around against TLCA Abilene in Ballinger on Saturday, November 5. Their win in this round secured their spot in the regional quarterfinals against Rankin in San Angelo on Tuesday, November 8, where unfortunately the Lady Longhorns playoff run came to an end in the fifth set.
