Multi-county Land and Livestock Conference set for Dec. 3 in Brady

By Steve Byrns
Submitted by Morgan Runyan
Coke County AgriLife Agent
The Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service will conduct the Tri-County Land and Livestock Conference on Dec. 3 at the Heart of Texas Event Center, 804 San Angelo Highway, Brady.

The program, to be conducted by the AgriLife Extension offices in Concho, McCulloch, and Menard counties, will start with registration at 8 a.m. followed by the program from 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

“Everything from rainfall insurance to cattle market outlook and a lot in between best describes this event,” said Brady Rose Evans, AgriLife Extension agent in Concho County. “In planning this meeting, we gathered the most recent concerns from producers and will use them as the topics for the conference.”

Preregistration by Nov. 25 is $25 for individuals and $40 for couples. After that, the fees rise to $30 and $50 respectively.

Three Texas Department of Agriculture continuing education units, one laws and regulations and two general, will be offered.

Topics and speakers include:

- Pesticide Laws and Regulations, Cory Pence, Texas Department of Agriculture pesticide inspector, San Angelo.
- Range Herbicide Update and Common Herbicide Use Mistakes, Dr. Bob Lyons, AgriLife Extension range specialist, Uvalde.
- Proper Use Of Hand Spraying Pesticides, Jeff Gerhart, Helena Chemical, Fort Worth.
- Rainfall Insurance, Bill Thompson, AgriLife Extension economist, San Angelo.
- Cattle Market Outlook, Thompson.
- Rural Water Concerns/Issues, Doug Shaw, agriculture and rural Texas ombudsman,

Texas Water Development Board, Austin.

- Estate Planning and Tax Considerations, Dr. Wayne Hayenga, AgriLife Extension economist emeritus, College Station.
- Land Leases: Grazing/Hunting and Oil/Gas, Tiffany Dowell, AgriLife Extension agricultural law specialist, Amarillo.

For more information, contact Evans at 325-732-4304, Trevor Dickschat, AgriLife Extension agent in McCulloch County, at 325-597-1295, or Lisa Brown, AgriLife Extension agent in Menard County, at 325-396-4787.

“Christmas in Olde Bronte” slated

Merchants and Directors of the Bronte Chamber of Commerce have decided to hold the “Christmas in Olde Bronte” celebration on Saturday, December 13.

The day will begin with a “Jingle Bell Fun Run,” and food and craft booths are being solicited to set up in the Cumbie’s building. Santa will arrive for a special photo session, and children of all ages are invited to visit with Santa, and to bring pets for photos as well! An “Ugly Christmas Sweater” competition will be held, and winners will receive fabulous prizes from the town’s merchants.

Also, a Christmas Lighting Contest will be held for Bronte residents wanting to participate. Folks should sign up by December 17th at Hometown Hardware and prizes will be awarded, so start loading up on tinsel and lights now! More details will be forthcoming on this event, and it is being coordinated by Jeanette Stewart.

The highlight of the event will be a special Christmas movie at the Texas Theatre. Details for the production are being finalized, and an announcement of the movie will be made shortly. Please contact Jeanette Stewart at 325.340.0608 for food and craft booth reservations, and stay tuned for more info!
