Hornets secure district championship

Blackwell kicker Mickey Toasakiri went 6 for 7 on PAT, giving Blackwell 12 points as the Hornets won their 30th regular season game with a 54-38 victory over a determined Loraine Bulldog squad. The victory secured Blackwell's third straight district championship. Fighting through a stiff wind, muddy field, and 35 degree temperature, Michael Lowry threw four touchdown passes in the victory. Nathaniel Shipman had 10 tackles to lead the hornet defense. Blackwell will face Sanderson in the first round of the playoffs at Mertz on Friday, November 15, at 6:30 pm.
