Cookie Burns benefit slated for Sunday

“Cancer Messed with the Wrong Cookie” is the headline for the event benefitting Cookie Burns on Sunday, November 19 in San Angelo. The day kicks off with a poker run, with registration at 9:30 am at Sam’s/Concho Valley ER parking lot. It will be $25 per bike and the first bike out will be 10:30 am and all bikes to be back in at 12:30 pm.

The rest of the day’s events will be held at Blaine’s Pub, located at 10 W. Harris.

A pulled pork meal will begin at 11 am and will be $10 per plate. To-go plates will be available.

There will also be a silent auction at 11 am and a live auction at 1 pm.

For more information or to donate, please contact Cathy Sparks at (325) 245-8882 or Debra Friend at (325) 656-1353.

Regional Champions! The Bronte High School Lady Longhorns finished a strong playoff run recently, winning five playoff games in three straight sets in five matches. At the regional tournament recently held in San Angelo, Bronte won their first round game against Marfa and then finished with a dominant and decisive win against a very strong Lamesa-Klondike team. This excellent teamwork resulted in the Lady Longhorns being named regional champions and state tournament bound. Bronte holds a long volleyball tradition with 12 total state tournament appearances, dating back to 1978.

of these groups are working for the interests of all retired school personnel. There will be no December meeting and regular meetings begin again in January, 2018.
