Obituaries

Robbins

Phyllis Kay (Watson) Robbins, 75, of Bronte passed away Monday November 1, 2021.

Kay was born Wednesday, September 4, 1946, in San Angelo, Texas, to RD (Jack) and Frances Boucher Watson. She grew up in San Angelo and graduated from Lake View High School along with the class of 1964. She grew up enjoying music and attended singing school at Harmony Hill in Azle, Texas, in the summer with her grandparents, George & Daphne Boucher, and was also in the band. Her love for music has been shared with many people throughout her lifetime.

February 19, 1971, she married Carroll Alonzo Robbins after a very short courtship when he swept her off her feet. Having been a city girl all her life, she and Alonzo moved to Ft. McKavett, where she learned to love the country and being by his side. Then moving to Bronte in 1974, they became members of the FUMC and have played an integral part in their church as well as the community. She worked with the youth of the community from church to the school, and the band booster club. She has served in many areas and always went above and beyond to do her part and more. Later in life, Kay joined Community Bible Study in San Angelo and served in many different areas. She loved meeting new women and reconnecting with others. These ladies became true mentors and friends, but even more so steadfast prayer warriors. She and Alonzo enjoyed serving together in the Concho County Emmaus Community and KAIROS. But over everything, the highlight of her life has been her grandchildren. She was Momma Kay long before any of them, but then became their Momma Kay. She loved attending as many activities that they each participated in.

She is survived by her husband, Alonzo of Bronte; daughter and son-in-law, Stefanie and Wayne Keele of Snyder; son and daughter-in-law, Luke and Ginger Robbins of Graham; grandchildren, McKenna and husband Brendan Jenkins, Marshall and Grayson Keele, Rachel and Josh Barnett, Garrett Box, Jack
