

Slaving Over a Hot Fire! Members of the Bronte Evening Lions Club helped prepare the food once again for the annual Hunters' Barbecue held at lunch on the opening day of deer season each year. The event, sponsored by B&K Deer Processing, is enjoyed by hundreds of area hunters. Prior to this year, the lunch was held behind the bank next to B&K. This year, the lunch was moved to the Rusty Bell, the former Highway Garage building on Highway 277 across from Stripes.

Superintendent's Report:

A. Financial Report
Mr. Siler advised that there might possibly be a surplus in the budget, but will need to have CPA confirm. CTE Budget needs to be increased. Mr. Siler is also looking into different marketing avenues. The HVAC has been replaced in the Pre-K classroom; the HVAC has been worked on in cafeteria and girl's locker room, but are now having issues in one of the high school classrooms.
