...Primary Election

Each candidate will need to pay a filing fee ($750.00) which will go toward paying for the elections to be held. If the candidate prefers not to pay a filing fee, they may circulate and turn in a petition having at least fifty registered and verified voters' signatures.

As of Monday, November 25, Coke County Sheriff Wayne McCutchen, Commissioner Precinct 1 Donnie Robertson, and Commissioner Precinct 3 Marshall Millican have all filed to retain their seats. Constable Marty Boyd has filed as well to retain his seat and will be joined on the ballot by Billy Williams.

Christmas Greetings deadline set for December 13

It is time once again for Christmas greetings! The Observer/Enterprise would like to remind businesses and individuals wishing to place a Christmas greeting in the newspaper to call and choose your greeting for the December 20 issue.

Deadline for this year's greetings is Friday, December 13, at 12 noon. For more information or to place your greeting, contact the O/E office at (325) 453-2433.

Local student inducted in to honor society

Angelo State University's chapter of the Phi Kappa Phi (PKP) national honor society inducted its fall 2019 class of 71 students during a special initiation ceremony on November 12 in the Houston Harte University Center.

Brady Clawson of Robert Lee was one of the students inducted.

PKP is one of the nation's most prestigious academic honor societies for students in all academic disciplines. Invitations to join PKP are extended to seniors and graduate students in the top 10% of their class, and to juniors in the top 7.5% of their class.
