Coke County Retired Teachers Assoc. meeting held

The Coke County Retired Teachers Association met on Monday, October 16, at the First Baptist Church in Bronte for the monthly business and pot luck luncheon.

Bronte Superintendent Tim Siler and Principal John Phillips met with the group. They reported on school calendars and Mr. Siler advised the group to pay close attention to the upcoming primaries and the importance of voting in them.

Lynda Gottschalk, District XV Local Unit Support, led a discussion of the health care situation. Members were advised to inform themselves of all the issues on the table for the next two years. All were encouraged to gain access to the Inside Line produced by Texas Retired Teachers Association by calling 1-888-674-3788 to talk to a person; or by accessing online at trta.org which goes to the home page; then click on Inside Line to have Inside Line delivered to an email address.

School personnel can call 1-888-237-6762 for any questions regarding TRS Care. The menu is long, 1-6, but eventually a person will be available to answer all questions.

A round of applause was given to Wanda Brewer and Brenda Hines for their work on compiling the yearbook and their bravery for using a printer bigger than Dallas. It was agreed that lifetime members' local dues of $5.00 would be paid by the CCRTA. The District Fall Conference was held on Thursday, October 12, in San Angelo. The group was pleased to have 16 school superintendents attend the meeting. Several superintendents had retired teachers in the group. They urged members to stay informed on candidate qualifications and to vote in the primaries. Three members from CCRTA attended the meeting.

The next noon meeting will be held November 20, same time and same place. Prospective members are always welcome and well fed.

Members attending were Janet Wommack, Lee Wommack, Charlotte Jackson, Cristie Bagwell, Gerald Sandusky, Beth Prather, Ann Hamilton, Rhonda and Bill Hood, Mary Lawhon, Paul and Kay Gothard, Brenda Hines, Jerita Taylor, Leva Self, Wanda Brewer, and guests.

Sorosis Study Club meeting held

The Bronte Sorosis Study Club met Thursday, October 19, 2017, at the home of Lanette Fletcher. Fourteen members and two guests were present.

The program was given by Keith Fletcher, Senior Firearms Instructor for Immigration and Customs Enforcement. He presented personal safety tips and demonstrations during many different situations. The ideas were most informative and created lots of discussion.

Visiting! Residents of the Robert Lee Care Center enjoyed a windy West Texas morning while visiting the home of Wes and Farrell Jean Washam.

Mary Percifull, President, conducted the business meeting. Several members will be attending the play "Cats" in Abilene, Saturday, October 22. The play is professionally presented by Abilene Christian University's students and is always enjoyed by everyone.

Gate duty at the Bronte football games was finalized and members were reminded to pay their dues in October.

The club voted to give $100 to Blylee Torres for hearing aids.

Club members will be making desserts for the Hunter's Luncheon. It will be sponsored by the Bronte Fireman and be held at The Rusty Bell on November 4.

Plans for the Potato Bake

Luncheon were discussed. It will be held Tuesday, November 7, at the Bronte First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. Serving time is 11 am to 1 pm. Tickets can be purchased early from a club member or bought at the luncheon. This is the club's annual fundraiser and proceeds are used for different community projects.

Members signed up to assist with the ticket taking at Bronteoberfest.

Pat Beford and Jerita Taylor were hostesses. Delicious refreshments were served to Cynthia Robinson, Doris Sims, Mary Percifull, Marilyn Bivins, Janet Wommack, Fran Crumpler, Pat Lee, Denise Gallaway, Becky Boyce, Jane
