BRONTE SCHOOL NEWS

Bronte Elementary PE! Tammy Hortenstine, Bronte Elementary School physical education teacher, has implemented a new physical education curriculum this year. On "Muscle Mondays", the students focus on building muscles and agility. "Teamwork Tuesday" is based on a varsity sport in which students will earn a teamwork stick to keep for the week and "Wings during o n Wednesday" students will walk/run on the track and miles for the year will be documented. On "Throw-Down Thursday", the students work on passing and throwing drills based on a varsity sport, and on "H.O.T. Fridays", students participate in activities related to Higher Order Thinking Skills, which includes dance. Also, on Fridays, the 7th grade Leadership class participates with some of the elementary grades. Mrs. Hortenstine noted that "The students love knowing what they are doing every day. They are always excited. I really thought their least favorite day would be 'Wings on Wednesday' but they love all the days!"
