Early voting continues

This year's General Election is slated for November 8, 2016. On that day, voters in Precincts 1 and 3 will vote at the Coke County Courthouse with voters in Precincts 2 and 4 voting at First Baptist Church in Bronte.

In addition to joining America in choosing our Commander in Chief, there is one local contested election. Voters must choose between Marshall Millican, Republican candidate, Charles Yorke, Democrat candidate, and Bill Burns, write-in candidate, for Coke County Precinct 3 Commissioner.

Others on the local ballot include Donnie Robertson, Coke County Precinct 1 Commissioner; Constable Precinct 2 Marty Boyd; Nicholas E. Arrott, II, County Attorney; County Tax Assessor/Collector Josie Dean; and County Sheriff Wayne McCutchen.

few. We will also have dessert, tea, coffee, and water. The luncheon will be from 11 am until 1 pm. Tickets can be purchased ahead from any club member, or they can be purchased at the door. The club members are excited to be able to host this fundraiser again this year and look forward to seeing all of their old friends and some new ones, too. There will be deliveries to the school, downtown, nursing home, and the courthouse. For those who cannot stay, to-go containers will be available.

Red Hats to meet November 8

The Red Hat Society will meet at 11 am Tuesday, November 8, 2016, for the Sorosis Club Potato Bake. It will be held at the First United Methodist Church fellowship hall in Bronte. This is a worthy fundraiser and the food is always delicious. Tickets may be purchased in advance or at the door.

Go vote and then come eat and have fun with the ladies in the red hats.

November 10 is sign-up day for major stock shows

Major Stock Show sign-up will be held on Thursday,

The End of an Era! Kay Gothard (right), along with long time assistants Joyce Morgan and Mary Lawhon (not pictured) is turning the closed sign around for good. Kay opened Main Street Market in Bronte on August 22, 1994, offering an eclectic variety of merchandize. Her patronage of artists and craftsmen around this area over the years is well known and the seating area at the front of the store was a place everyone was made to feel like a member of the family. As the business grew, her annual sales were well attended with crowds lining up in downtown Bronte waiting for the door to open. A reception will be held in Kay's honor the last day the store is open on Saturday afternoon, November 12, 2016 from 2 pm to 5 pm. A sale of all merchandize by Lemley Auction will be held Saturday, December 3, 2016.

November 10, 2016, from 3:30 pm until 7 pm in the Robert Lee Ag Classroom.

If you would like to put in entries to any of the major stock shows (Sandhill, Ft Worth, San Angelo, San Antonio, Houston, or Austin), please make plans to come fill out paperwork at this sign-ups or contact an Ag teacher or Extension Agent.
