

More Cute than Scary! These little costumed cuties were among the children who made the rounds of Robert Lee businesses last Wednesday morning for Halloween.

Spirit Quilt winner announced

At the Friday night Steer football game, the '64 Study Club announced a winner for the Robert Lee Orange and Black Spirit Quilt created by Debbie Haveman. The Spirit Quilt was won by Renee Smith. Also, there was another drawing for a Spirit Tote Bag plus a West Central Wireless gift certificate which was won by Debbie Childress. Another drawing for a gift card from West Central Wireless was won by Jimmy Sinclair. Congratulations to the winners and a big thank you to all those who bought tickets in support of the Study Club's Scholarship Fund.

It should be reported that a special donor dropped by the table at the game and made a generous contribution which will add to a Robert Lee senior in the furthering his or her education.

The next scholarship fund raiser of the club will be an opportunity to participate in the drawing for a 16" flat screen television set. Tickets are $1.00 each, or six for $5.00. Also two more gift cards from West Central Wireless will be awarded. This drawing will be held on Friday, December 5, 2014, at the Robert Lee Open House day.

The '64 Study Club appreciates the many who support the Scholarship Fund by participating as well as the individuals and businesses who contribute items for the fundraisers.
