O'Rear

John Calhoun (JC) O'Rear passed away suddenly at his home in Bronte, Texas, on Tuesday October 23, 2018.

He was born on February 15, 1927, in Robert Lee, Texas. JC was preceded in death by his wife Leola; parents Lue Ola and Jessie Frank O'Rear; brothers David and Jessie; sisters Ruby, Bernice and Eunice; two stepsons, Melvin and Larry Jones.

He is survived by one step son, Alvin Jones of Big Lake. He is also survived by his 'extended' family, the community of Bronte, Texas.

JC never met a stranger and he truly loved socializing with the townspeople as he made his daily rounds in Bronte, stopping for coffee, breakfast, and conversation at Stripes, visiting with the ladies at the post office, Field Day! Ann Pate gives a tour of Fort Chadbourne to Bronte and Robert Lee Elementary students during the Coke County Conservation Field Day on October 3, 2018.

paying his bill at the water department, shopping and talking with the clerks at the grocery and dollar store. He would occasionally pop in at the Bronte nursing and rehab center and joke about not visiting too long or they might try and keep him 'again'. Age never slowed JC's quick wit or dimmed his infectious smile. Bronte will feel a little emptier without his presence. He will be loved, missed and grieved for by his nurses and lady friend. He was cremated per his wishes. An informal memorial get together for friends is pending at a later date. Services were under the direction of Shaffer Funeral Home.
