Joke County Water Supply Corporation awarded grant

The Joke County Water Supply Corporation has been awarded a grant from the Texas Water Development Board to help fund the construction of a new water treatment plant. The grant is for $200,000 and will be used to purchase equipment and materials for the plant. The plant is located in the town of Joke and will serve a population of approximately 1,000 people. The plant is expected to be completed in the summer of 2021.

SPECIAL OIL & GAS SECTION

By Melissa McCaskey, Publisher

Many Coke County citizens view the oil boom as a double-edged sword. While it has brought economic benefits to both tax coffers and local businesses, it has also brought environmental concerns about a town's future.

Workover Rig Southwest of Robert Lee
The workover rig is a large piece of machinery used to maintain and improve the production of an existing oil well. It is located southwest of Robert Lee and is owned by a private company. The rig is expected to be in operation for several months.

Special Government Section

Coke County Courthouse • Robert Lee

Coke County covers 928 square miles in west central Texas. The county was founded in 1859 and named for Richard Coke, the 15th governor of Texas. As of the 2010 census, its population was 3,329.
