Energy Saving Trees offered for Oncor patrons

The Arbor Day Foundation is partnering with Oncor Electric to provide FREE trees to Oncor customers across Texas, including those in Robert Lee and Bronte. There are 9,000 trees left and each customer can order three trees. Planting trees around homes helps save energy and reduce utility bills.

Energy Saving Trees is an easy-to-use online tool that pulls up a satellite image of your yard and guides you through selecting the right tree and the ideal place to plant it in your yard to get the greatest energy savings. The tool also shows you an estimate of other benefits your tree will provide including its value to cleaner air, pollution and stormwater control, and absorbing carbon dioxide.

It's a huge opportunity for anyone interested in improving their energy savings and their neighborhood.

Preservation work at the Sam Rayburn House Museum State Historic Site just west of Bonham was completed this year, and the former home of the U.S. Speaker of the House from Texas—who served for 17 consecutive years—is a 20th-century time capsule. Several of the historic sites are decorated for the holidays, and feature special programs.
