BHRC Christmas Festivities! Santa (top left photo) visited the Bronte Health & Rehab Center on December 8, 2011. Several community children and the residents visited with Santa. He took their christmas wish lists and handed out gifts to the kids. This is likely to become a tradition, so plan ahead for next year.

The Bronte Health & Rehab Center held their annual Employee Christmas Party on December 9, 2011. Besides having some great food and lots of fun with the Chinese Christmas, the Employee Of The Year and Department Head Of The Year were named. Employee Of The Year was Bertha Frausto and Department Head Of The Year was Angela Minjarez. Bertha is an LVN at the facility and Angela is the MDS Coordinator. Both of them have done an outstanding job this past year.

Texas agriculture producers," John Ross Copeland noted. "Farmers and ranchers need to take note of the change."

John Ross Copeland said the registration number requirement does not change the agriculture/timber exemption that has been in place since 1961. Anyone engaged in the production of agriculture or timber products still qualifies.

"The new law is aimed at curbing abuse of those who falsely claim the exemption, costing sales tax dollars to the state, municipalities and local communities," John Ross Copeland said.

In the past, anyone who bought products for use in agricultural items must provide a registration number, which will be issued by the comptroller.

"This new procedure is an important tool to protect (Continued on page 7)

4-H holds raffle for trailer

All the Coke County 4-H members and FFA kids from Robert Lee and Bronte are selling raffle tickets for a chance to win a 2011 S & H 5' x 14' x 6' 6" Rawhide Stock Trailer.

The drawing will be held at the conclusion of the Coke County Junior Livestock Show on January 21, 2012. You do not need to be present to win.

New law aimed at ag sales tax abuse
A new law aimed at reducing the misuse of agriculture sales tax exemptions is going into effect in January, said John Ross Copeland, president of the Coke-Sterling County Farm Bureau.

"The law creates a new tax exemption number for
