Year in Review Issue set for next week

The last issue of The Observer/Enterprise for 2019 will be published December 27, 2019.

We hope readers will enjoy looking back at a few of the stories making headlines this past year. However, it will be impossible to include everything noteworthy from 2019.

The majority of this edition will be dedicated to 2019 with current news included near the back of the issue.

Local volunteer group receives grant

Friends of the Robert Lee Care Center was recently awarded a grant of $5,600 by the San Angelo Health Foundation. The money will go toward construction of a gazebo. "To make life better for the residents of Robert Lee Care Center" is the mission of the Friends of the Robert Lee Care Center.

The San Angelo Health Foundation has awarded $768,586 to nineteen nonprofit organizations. With the addition of these grants 213 organizations and 754 projects have benefitted from Foundation funding since inception.

Longhorn Classic slated for January 4

The Bronte FFA will host the inaugural Longhorn Classic Livestock Show on Saturday, January 4, 2020.

The event will begin at 9 am at the Coke County Livestock Barn in Robert Lee and will include a "celebrity showmanship" division in which teachers, faculty, and administrators of Bronte ISD will show against one another for laughs and prizes.
