Dear Santa,
 Please bring me a Barbie Castle and a Barbie Boy. I have been good at school and at home. I have a little sister named Jewel. She is one year and I want you to bring her a Barbie girl so she will leave mine alone. I'm sure you know where I live. And I am three years old.

Love,
 Kylan Pitcock

Dear Santa,
 Let me start by saying that I have been acting WAY better than I did last year, so that's worth something right? This year for Christmas, I will be happy with anything as long as it falls into one of these basic categories: trains (especially Thomas the Train), cars, or school buses.

Mom says I'm a little obsessed. Please remember my baby sister, Kanyon, and all the other children in Robert Lee.

Merry Christmas!

Love,

Bryson Crawley, Age 2

Dear Santa,
 I am really excited about Christmas, since it's my very first one! I have, of course, been a VERY good girl this year. For Christmas, I am hoping for a baby doll, a play house, and any toy that encourages me to crawl after it. Look out, world - I am on the move! Don't forget my big brother, Bryson! Have a Merry Christmas!

Love

Kanyon Crawley, Age 6 mo.
