

Learning and Giving! Robert Lee Elementary kiddos decided not to exchange presents again this year and opted to collect money for the Coke County Food Pantry. They raised $521.81.

Poster Winners! 5th and 6th graders of Bronte and Robert Lee ISDs participated in the Conservation Poster Contest. Local judges, representing both sides of the county, had the difficult task of selecting the winners. Our first place winner was Tatum Ramirez of Bronte, second place went to Justice Immel of Robert Lee, Charlie Sigala from Robert Lee took third, and fourth place went to Harper Jernigan from Bronte. The judges also awarded Blessyn Beck of Bronte with a ribbon for "Most Creative". Miss Ramirez will attend an awards banquet in the spring to receive her plaque.
