

New Windows in Blackwell! After months in the making, Whitworth Stained Glass came to Blackwell to install new windows in the sanctuary of First United Methodist Church. On December 28, 2012, GEO Group donated the detention facility at the edge of Bronte to Coke County. Since it became apparent Coke County would not be able to put in a prison at the facility, Judge Blair has been searching for a buyer. A company has made an offer of just under $200,000 for the buildings and 38 acres.
