2019 Year in Review Issue

By Melinda McCutchen,
Publisher

We are entering a new year. As we say goodbye to 2019, I hope readers enjoy this look back at a few of the stories making headlines this past year.

While combing through all of the 2019 issues, I quickly realized that there was no possible way to include everything. I'll apologize in advance if a story important to you was omitted. Also, we have not included any of the school activities. Our area students are extremely talented, earning honors in academics, sports, UIL, and other extra curricular activities. There would be no way to include all of the honors earned in 2019 by these students.

The majority of this issue is dedicated to 2019. Current news is included on pages 6 and 7. I sincerely want to thank our readers, contributors and advertisers for your support this past year.

Mayoral Turmoil! The year began with a cloud over Robert Lee's City Hall. Mayor Allyson Crenshaw faced angry citizens at many meeting over the course of the year. 2019 is ending with several new faces on the council, multiple investigations into the mayor's actions, her arrest and indictment, and a pending lawsuit filed by Crystal Blevins, the former city secretary for wrongful termination.
