

Coke County Organizations are Blessed

Ammunition Donation! Tim Smith (left), owner of Bronte Gun and Tackle, donated a bucket of 1575 22 caliber shells to the Coke County 4-H Shooting Club. He is shown with the team's coach Orlando DeLaGarza.

Vest Donation! Tim Smith (2nd left photo, on right), owner of Bronte Gun and Tackle, was able to secure a donation of seven protective vests from the San Bernadino Sheriff's office in California to the Coke County Sheriff's Office. He is shown with Coke County Sheriff's Deputy Brandon Neal.

Stephen Salmon (top right photo, on left), representing the East Coke County Ambulance Service, accepts a $2500 donation from ExxonMobil Pipeline Company recently at the county courthouse in Robert Lee. County Judge Hal Spain made the presentation. Also included were $1,000 donations to both the Robert Lee and Bronte Independent School districts.

The Bronte Volunteer Fire Department will purchase three new breathing units to provide clean air to firefighters in emergency situations, thanks to a $19,690 grant from the Lower Colorado River Authority. Shown are LCRA Regional Affairs Representative Cooper Hogg (3rd left photo on right) and Bronte VFD Fire Chief Martin DeLaGarza.

Vision with a Purpose awarded donations of $918.06 each to Robert Lee Food Bank, West Coke County EMS, and the Robert Lee Volunteer Fire Department (2nd right photo and both bottom photos).

Thank You!

