Coke County Retired Teachers meet

The CCRTA met at the First Baptist Church in Bronte at the regular covered dish meeting on November 17, 2014.

President of District XV Lynn Granzin met with the group to bring members up to date on successes and concerns of the district and state.

This is an especially important year to meet with the CCRTA to be counted as aware of the state issues concerning retired and active teachers.

Members decided to donate books to the local elementary schools. Members will bring children's books in good condition and a budget amount was set for new books.

Members present included Lynn Granzine, Ann Hamilton, Donna Poehls, Skip Casey, Leva Self, Paul Gothard, Kay Gothard, Kathy McCown, June Gulley, Pat Lee, Lisa Dyess, Brenda Hines, Bill Hood, Cristie Bagwell, Lee Wommack, Merle Kelso and Charlotte Jackson.

Next meeting will be January 19, at noon, at the Bronte Baptist Church. All active school personnel, and retired teachers and school personnel in the area are welcomed to come to the meetings and consider becoming a member of CCRTA.

A phone system grid for calling CCRTA members has been established so that each member of CCRTA will hear from somebody about legislation that should be addressed and legislators who should be contacted. District 28 Senator Charles Perry contact information is P.O. Box 12068, Capitol Station, Austin, 78711 or 512 463-0128. House Representative Drew Darby's contact information is P.O. Box 2910, Austin, Tx 78711, 512 463-0311(ext.E2 406). Email is also available by typing in the reps name in Google. All info will pop up. Stay tuned!

Coke County Livestock Show 2015

By Morgan Runyan
Texas AgriLife Agent

The 2015 Coke Co. Livestock Show is quick approaching and the livestock association is pleased to announce an addition to the upcoming show. This year, there will be a pee-wee showmanship show following the lamb and goat show on Friday and following the pig show on Saturday.

Anyone 8 and under and not a current 4-H member can participate in the pee wee show. Each participant will need to find an animal to borrow to bring in the ring and a helper is welcome if needed. There will be a sign up sheet at the concession stand for those that would like to
