Hornets continue history making playoff run

Playing a near-perfect game, the Blackwell Hornets advanced to the state semi-finals with a 62-54 victory over #1 Jayton. The Hornets and Jaybirds traded leads all night long until Blackwell managed a third-quarter stop and was able to go up by two scores. Michael Lowry ran and/or passed for 4 touchdowns while the Jaybirds forced on Hornet running back Cameron Coldiron. Although Coldiron was held to only two touchdowns, one involved him hurdling a Jaybird player and landing in the end zone.

Defensively, Sam Brinkman lead the way with 11 tackles with Nathaniel Shipman close behind with 10.

The Hornets will face Motley

County in Knox City on Friday, December 6, at 6:30 pm for a chance to play in the state championship.
