Joke County Water Supply Corporation awarded grant
The Texas Water 9.5 financial assistance to the state agency award of $100,000 in loan forgiveness from the Drinking Water Research Fund to help pay for the construction of water supply infrastructure. The Corporation will use the assistance to finance water supply infrastructure projects. This will help improve water quality and ensure a sustainable water supply for future generations.

SPECIAL OIL & GAS SECTION
By Melissa McClendon, Publisher
Coke County citizens view the oil boom positively as it creates jobs and increases the tax base. However, the boom has also brought challenges such as increased traffic, dust, and noise. The county is working to address these issues and ensure a balanced approach to resource management.

Workover Rig Southwest of Robert Lee
The workover rig is a key component of oil and gas production. It is used to maintain and optimize the performance of existing wells. The rig is currently operating in the southwest part of the county, near Robert Lee.

Santa Letters Inside
We have received a large number of letters from children who are excited about the upcoming holidays. We will be featuring some of the letters in our next issue. We wish you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy & Prosperous New Year!
