

B&K Hunters Barbecue! Hunters from around the area lined up before the 11 am start time to fill their plates with the amazing burgers, barbecue and fish at the annual Hunters Appreciation Barbecue sponsored by B & K Processing each opening day of deer season in downtown Bronte. The volunteer kitchen crew were kept busy until the last hunter came through the line to get that last bite! This year's barbecue is set for opening day, Saturday, November 7, 2015, from 11 am to 2 pm. The location is B&K Processing (behind Bronte Grocery, Bronte Hardware and First National Bank in Bronte).

Hunters are Appreciated! Members of Robert Lee's Vision with a Purpose prepare for the hunters attending last year's Bob Wrinkle Memorial Hunters Appreciation Barbecue. This year's event, the 26th annual dinner, will be held opening day of gun season, Saturday, November 7, 2015, at the rec hall in Robert Lee, beginning at 6 pm and continuing until 9 pm. Among the many prizes given last year was this Henry Rifle (opposite page). This year, there will be a gun raffle. Prizes will include door prizes, a Yeti cooler, and a BBQ grill. Tickets are available at Coke County Hardware, FOL Feed Store, Cindy's Grocery, Ivey Motors, Surety Title, and Floyd C. Pettitt Insurance.
