

Vision With A Purpose! VP Heart Worker for January is Claire Giudici. Claire and her husband Steve moved here from New York in July of 2013. She is very active in the community and has served on many committees for VP. The pair bought an older home in Robert Lee and have been remodeling it. They will move in soon. They are a great addition to Robert Lee and VP.

Vision with a Purpose meeting held

Vision with a purpose met Thursday, March 3, at Victory Assembly of God at 6:30 while their Austin St. headquarters is under construction. The meeting opened with prayer led by Debbie Childers and then a light supper was served. The meeting was led by new president, Marshall Millican.

Sabrina Nunez read minutes from last meeting. Crystal Stanford gave the treasurer's report.

Guest Buddy Wallace from Mountain Creek Golf Course presented an update on the changes and progress of the golf course. Members of the golf course would like to work with VP in beautification and other projects. VP will donate another golf cart this year. It was suggested we place benches along the course's walking trail.

Paul Nunez and Todd Smith gave members an update on the progress of VP's construction of their headquarters. The floor will be the next project. The old one will be torn off and a new concrete one will be poured.

Sons of Pitches baseball tournament is in the works for August. Gina Moran reported that baseball teams from the area are excited for this year's event.

It was decided to purchase more pots for the beautification of Austin St. and other areas in Robert Lee-the golf course being one.

Dianne Hefner presented the minutes from the 4th of July parade committee meeting. Approval is needed by membership for floats and pageant and concession stand. Jason Moran, a VP member and a member of the Street Affair committee will attend future VP parade committee meetings.

It was reported that the EMS training for Gina Moran and Grace Todacheeny has been paid up, thanks to VP and Noel and Clark Tinkler.

VP set up an EMT committee for future applicants in order to get VP support. Committee members are, Noel Tinkler, Gayland and Kay Hurst, Leta Caston, Grace Todacheeny, Gina Moran and Tony Lopez.

Robert Lee's electronic sign will be updated by Nora Broadbent with help from city hall.

Debbie Childers will be in charge of Facebook, Heart Worker of the Month, and Ribbon Cuttings. Grace Todacheeny will continue sending out e-mails and Facebook info.

Thank you for your vote and support in the Precinct 1 County Commissioners Primary election.

I will appreciate your vote and support in the Tuesday, May 24, 2016 Primary runoff election.

The Heart Worker of the month of February was Clark Tinkler. Clark has been very active in VP projects, especially those things involving construction. He and wife Noel have been very supportive with VP's involvement of the EMT program. He and Noel are running the very successful Noel & Co., a wonderful place to go for Sunday dinner.

Gaylon Childers closed the meeting with prayer.

Parade for 4th of July slated by VP

Robert Lee Vision with a Purpose is planning a 4th of July parade to be held Saturday, July 2, at 10 am.

Committee members present were Brandon and Nora

Broadbent, Noel Tinkler, Kay and Gayland Hurst, Dave Hughes, Leta Caston, Crystal Stanford, Dianne Hefner, and Debbie Childers.

The parade will be held in conjunction with events by the Robert Lee Street Affair. The parade route will run from Ms. T's to the park pavilion.

A Miss Coke County Independence Pageant and a Little Miss Firecracker are being planned as well.
