Texas teachers can register for TFB’s Summer Ag Institutes
 By Emmy Powell
 TFB Communications Specialist
 Texas teachers are invited to learn more about agriculture and how to incorporate agricultural concepts in their classroom through Texas Farm Bureau’s (TFB) Summer Ag Institutes (SAI).

 “SAI provides teachers from across the state an immersive, hands-on learning experience and helps them become familiar with modern agriculture and how it can be incorporated into the classroom,” said Jordan Bartels, TFB associate director of Organization Division, Educational Outreach.

 This year, TFB is expanding the program to include two locations—Waco and Lubbock.
 Throughout the week for each event, agricultural experts and educational professionals will demonstrate agricultural concepts for teachers from across the Lone Star State.
 “Teachers will also see agriculture in action through
