

3rd Annual Daddy Daughter Date Night held

Beginning at 5 pm, the fathers, stepdads, grandfathers, uncles, brothers and friends brought their beautiful dates to the 3rd Annual Daddy Daughter Date Night. The event was held Saturday, February 11, 2012 at the Robert Lee Rec Hall with 130 people attending from Robert Lee and Bronte.

With the theme "Snowflake Ball", the tables were decorated with blue tablecloths, silver and blue snowflake confetti, and centerpieces of various sizes of glass bowls with blue and silver ornaments, silver eucalyptys, crystal sprays and silver sprays. White wax luminaries with tea light candles lit the tables. White lights strung around the perimeter of the room illuminated the dance floor. Blue snowflake lights and a large centerpiece of blue and silver ornaments decorated the food table. The dance floor was topped with silver, white and blue snowflakes. The girls received a complimentary photo taken with their date taken in front of a blue and silver background.

Besides the light appetizers and dancing, there were opportunities to win door prizes for the young ladies and their dates. Door prize winners were: Kendra Baucom, Braylee Hood, Zoey Nichols, Elexis Sanchez, Darby Duncan, Chyann Torres, Kira Lee, Arianna Lofton, Zoey Hortenstine, McKenzie Puentez, Keeley McCabe, David Bachmann, Tim Medina, Michael Munoz, Jesse McClure, Tommy Roach, Joseph Roe, Ricky Wheat, Jason Wilson, Jessie Puentez, Jim Richardson, C.R. ... Mayor Jacobs

When the pipeline started, we asked for volunteers, boy did you step up. From near and far came equipment, construction labor, food preparation, donations, prayers and lots of support. With all of your help we had our part of the pipeline in the ground in 18 working days. I AM PROUD OF YOU! Soon the rest of the pipeline project will be completed. This project will secure the City with a water supply while the search for other sources of water goes forth.

I truly believe that each of you can hold your head high, stick your chest out and be PROUD of yourself! You have shown the rest of the World that if you are willing to do your part and work together, problems can and will be solved. I am proud to work for and with each one of you.

John Jacobs,

Mayor of Robert Lee
