Stribling show coming to Fort Concho

Approximately 270 works of original art by local and area artists will be showcased at the 12th annual Stribling Art Extravaganza March 25-27 at historic Fort Concho in San Angelo. The event benefits West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

Ben and Beverly Stribling are underwriting the show and sale which features the talents of current and former residents of San Angelo and the Concho Valley. Additional funding also is provided by Travis and Kam Stribling.

More than 150 artists' works – ranging from oils, acrylics and watercolors to bronzes, metal, ceramics, wood and stone – will be displayed and for sale.

Also, artwork by San Angelo artists Hugh Campbell, Jeff Moxham and Julie Raymond will be featured in a silent auction during the weekend event.

Location for the show is at Fort Concho's Commissary, Quartermaster and Barracks 6 buildings, located off South Oakes Street. Hours are 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., Friday, March 25 and Saturday, March 26 and noon to 4 p.m. on Sunday, March 27. Admission is free and open to the public.

The Young Artists' Display, sponsored by Jud Gray and exhibited in Barracks 6, will feature the works of local and area high school students, thus providing young people an opportunity to experience public recognition of their talents. Also this year, in addition to regular mediums, animation art will be on display.

"We are honored to be part of this great community event," said WTRC President Woody Gilliland, "and proud to continue offering a venue for the public to see the tremendous amount of artistic talent in the region, and also provide a means of support for West Texas Rehab Center."

Since 1953, West Texas Rehab Center's mission has been to improve the quality of life for every disabled child and adult who seek its services, regardless of their financial circumstance. A private, non-profit organization, WTRC has outpatient rehabilitation facilities in Abilene, San Angelo and Ozona.

More information is available by calling WTRC-San Angelo at 223-6300 or by visiting the Web sites, WestTexasRehab.org or striblingart.org.

Stock Horse of Texas practice to be held in San Angelo March 26

Local members of the Stock Horse of Texas organization met March 8 in San Angelo. The purpose of the meeting was to inform and encourage interested people to join the organization. The Stock Horse of Texas' motto is to make a better horse and horseman and their clinics that are held prior to most shows do just that.

Most people are afraid to get involved in this type of organization for fear their horse is not good enough or their horsemanship skills will not meet the expectations of the clinicians. The horse loving people in this organization go out of their way to help everyone. The shows are filled with friendly people of all walks of life.

The organization dues and the shows are inexpensive. Go to the Stock Horse of Texas website, or the American Stock Horse of Texas website for additional information.

There will be a practice session Saturday, March 26, to prepare for the San Angelo SHOT Show being held in May at the Spur Arena. The practice will begin at 9 am at Tim Smith's facilities near FM 2105 off Cactus Lane and Clearwater East Street. Enter off Clearwater East Street. For directions, call Tim at 450-1771.

For additional information on practice or organization, contact Stephanie Sheen at 949-0852 or Elaine Lee at 656-0600.

the Big Lake Community Center in Big Lake. There will be a BBQ lunch, catered by Kenny Blaneck's Village Café, and vendors will be on site to display improvements in today's agriculture business sector. Continuing Education Credits (CEU) will be offered for participants, registration will begin at 8:00 a.m., with the first speaker starting the day at 8:45 a.m. and concluding at 2:30 p.m.

The mission is to bring together innovative and successful individuals to share their experiences with an audience of their peers in the agricultural business.

Dr. Gary Vannoy, D.V.M., from Ozona, will cover livestock diseases common to the area; Dr. Rick Machen, AgriLife Research and Extension livestock specialist, will provide vaccinating schedules and results; Dr. Cody Scott, with Angelo State University will cover range animal nutrition and protein/mineral supplementation; and representatives from Boehringer-Ingelheim and Texas Vet Lab, Inc. will be covering pharmaceutical improvements and available products.

During the event Stay Tuff Fencing, Yellowhouse Machinery Company and Priefert Ranch Equipment will offer on-site live demonstrations of new innovations to the livestock and equipment industry.

Corey Owens, instructor/research associate with the ASU Department of Agriculture will have graduate students on hand to display their rangeland research projects. Both students and speakers will be available to answer questions about their respective research projects and presentations.

For more information and/or to RSVP for the workshop contact the Middle Concho SWCD at 325.884.2182 ext.3.

LAST DAYS

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer. • I Timothy 4:1-5

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. • II Timothy 4:1-4
