USDA to survey certified organic farmers, ranchers
 The U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS) is conducting the 2021 Organic Survey to gather new data on certified organic crops and livestock commodities in the United States. This effort is critical to help determine the economic impact of certified organic agricultural production on the nation.
 NASS is mailing the survey to all known certified organic farms and ranches within the 50 states. The questionnaire asks farmers and ranchers to provide information on acreage, production and sales, as well as
