COVID Clinic! Coke County Tax Office Chief Deputy Randi Hardesty prepares to receive her COVID vaccination from Texas National Guard members on Thursday, March 11, 2021. The vaccination clinic held that day in Robert Lee hosted approximately fifty county residents. According to County Judge Hal Spain, the attendance at this first clinic was a little disappointing. However, State Health Department records indicate that over 600 county residents have currently received at least their first of two inoculations. Those kinds of numbers are encouraging in our efforts to achieve herd immunity against this pandemic.

the Bronte Baseball Fields and Pavilion, beginning at 11:30 am. A bagged hot dog lunch will be provided after the egg hunt, as well as prize eggs and a drawing for a cornhole set. Those attending are asked to please wear masks and practice social distancing. For more information, call (325) 450-0891.
