... Cattle Raisers Convention

(Continued from Page 3) which has created a severe lack of surface water in the state," said Pete Bonds, rancher and TSCRA president. "And while we're short on water, the demand for surface water continues to grow."

"How exactly this will affect landowners' surface water rights and what we should be concerned about for the future of surface water will be some of the questions answered during this in-depth discussion," Bonds continued.

The 137th Cattle Raisers Convention is April 4-6. Highlights of the convention include the Cattle Raisers Expo, the School for Successful Ranching, and educational sessions focused on a number of issues critical to the Texas cattle industry. Robert Lee memories come alive

On the social media, FaceBook, a page was introduced in January - Days Past in Robert Lee. Old pictures of the area, including schools and communities, have opened up memories of all who visit the site.

Organizer and current administrator of the page, Fran Lomas, hopes that all will share pictures and stories of those days. The latest addition was a picture of a social gathering in Silver in the 1930s. Others have been pictures of old houses, steel bridges, school classes and the old courthouse.

Presently pictures of individuals or individual families are discouraged, though Dr. Mac has been honored.
