Obituaries

Newcomb

Marjorie Lee (Margie) Newcomb passed away at University Medical Center in Lubbock, Texas, on March 15, 2017, from complications of the leukemia she had bravely battled for the past six months.

Margie was born July 29, 1954, in Abilene, Texas. Growing up, she loved participating in rodeos with her dad and sisters, spending time on her grandparents' farm near Tennyson, playing all kinds of sports, and making friends wherever she went. Her spunky spirit and exuberant attitude made her a favorite among family and friends alike. She would give the shirt off her back or her last dollar if it would help someone in need, and was just as generous with her time as she was with material things. She was fiercely loyal and protective of those she loved and God help anyone who did anything to hurt one of them.

She spent many years driving escort for oversize loads, and it was a truck driver who stole her heart. Allen Spradlin would spend the last fifteen years of her life sharing a home with her; looking out for her on the road; and caring for her when she got sick.

In addition to Allen, Margie was survived by daughter Melissa (Dale) King; grandchildren Courtney, Colton, Cassidy, and Caden King and great-grandson Trevor. Other survivors include her dad Richard Baker, sisters Cindy (Charles) Aars and Cheryl (Bob) Long. She will also be missed by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and too many friends to count.

She was preceded in death by her mom Anedia Perkins and infant daughter Tyfani, who she was looking forward to meeting for the first time on the other side.

The family is asking that in lieu of flower, donations be made in Margie's name to Hope Lodge Lubbock, 3511 10th Street, Lubbock, Texas 79415.

A memorial service has been tentatively scheduled for May 13, 2017, at the Tennyson Baptist Church.

Comfort Stop The Greatest Gift

By Mary McBrayer

Pondering, which was the greatest gift of all; I thought of all the gifts that had begun to fall. Some so grand that they took away my breath. Some as precious, it required the bodies death.

I reasoned and prayed, and found to my surprise, the greatest of all gifts was not what I surmised. Twas "humility and love in godly descent, filtering down to earth from God it had been sent. Preserved from every one of satan's fiery darts, a touch of God's hand, and it entered my heart.

Humility stood great – tall – and serene,
 Enhancing the senses and making them more keen.
 Gleefully waiting for the

Master's Son;

In humility standing for the end to be done.

Humility so deep, something to keep
