Scholarship opportunity for local students

Concho Valley Electric Cooperative (CVEC) awards four $2,000 scholarships every spring. Two scholarships are awarded to high school seniors and two are awarded to post-secondary students continuing their education.

Applicants must be a CVEC member, or dependent of a member, whose primary residence is served by the cooperative. Scholarship recipients are chosen by an independent committee based on grades, leadership ability, community involvement, school activities and an essay submission. The recipient must attend an accredited Texas institution of higher education, including certified trade schools, while pursuing a degree. The submissions deadline for the CVEC scholarship is March 31.

Junior High Track

For more information or to obtain applications, please visit cvec.coop/community/cvec-scholarship or call the member services department at 325-655-6957.

SPECIAL OIL & GAS SECTION

Workover Rig Southeast of Robert Lee

By Michelle McWhirter, Publisher
 Many Coke County citizens have seen the oil boom firsthand as they drive through the county. The county is a major oil and gas producer, and the industry has brought economic benefits to both the county and local businesses.
