Obituaries

Roe

Kevin Roe, 60, passed away on March 18, 2021, from complications of an unexpected heart attack and stroke.

Kevin was born in Robert Lee, Texas, on February 19, 1961, to Billy Wayne and Dolores Roe. Kevin met the love of his life, Tammy, while attending classes at Angelo State University. They exchanged vows on June 25, 1983, and had three beautiful children, Shelby, Lindsey, and Chase. Kevin and Tammy built a home in Robert Lee, where they raised their children, and then moved to Nemo, Texas, in 2010.

Kevin worked in the oil and gas industry for 37 years and developed lifelong friendships. He was a mentor both in industry and in life. He prioritized family over work, found joy in life, and kept it as simple as possible. He made an impact on many people, and his community, while being an advocate for students by serving on the school board of Robert

Lee ISD. He was often referred to as the "coolest dad" by every kid which made it easy for him to become the greatest Popi to his grandchildren, Addison (9), Brooklyn (4), and Bryant (1). Kevin kept people rolling in laughter because he could find humor in the most mundane life circumstances. He was the life of the party, a friend to all, one of a kind, and still doing backflips off the back of boats at the age of 56.

Kevin is survived by his wife, Tammy; children, Shelby (Addison), Lindsey (Allen), and Chase (Reno); grandchildren, Addison, Brooklyn, and Bryant; and parents, Billy Wayne and Dolores.

He was preceded in death by grandparents, Bill and Inez Roe, and Buster and Helen Jones.

Funeral Services will be held at Robert Lee Methodist Church on Saturday, March 27, 2021, at 2 pm, followed by a celebration of his life. Please dress casually at KROE's request.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to a charity of your choice.

Services are under the direction of Shaffer Funeral Home/ Robert Lee.

Online condolences can be made at www.shafferpioneer.com.

Local residents to attend play in Post

The Ragtown Gospel Theater in Post, Texas, is currently presenting "Judas the Lost Apostle". The synopsis of the play: "His name was Judas Iscariot, the most enigmatic of all the Apostles of Jesus – the one who betrayed Him. On opposite hillsides outside Jerusalem, Jesus and his betrayer are enduring a very different kind torment, both orchestrated by the enemy of God and Man."

The first scene in the play, Satan has completely taken over Judas, and he is saying things to God that demonstrate just how contemptible, how profoundly evil that he truly is. His arrogance and pride are on full display. And then, having no more use for Judas, having used him to betray Jesus and set things in motion that led to His execution, Satan discards Judas to face what he has done.

Director Chip Polk adds, "I'm really glad we're doing this particular play right now. It reminds us who's really orchestrating everything that is dividing and conquering our country, our churches, and our families right now, and what a delight all that must be to Satan. I hope it is a powerful reminder to do what the old song says, and turn our eyes upon Jesus."

Chip Polk will open each performance with special guest singers Glen Polk, Jay Young and
