

Vol. 125, No. 37

Friday, March 29, 2013

Special Oil & Gas "Pull-Out" Section Begins on Page 5

Price Ranch receives 2012 TSCRA Stewardship award

The Te x a s Southwestern Cattle productive." Raisers Ranch t h e Management (TSSRM).

longtime member of these goals. are an excellent example centuries." of today's agriculture Frank and Sims run the stewards a n d conservationists."

something we must con-larly in their area. tinue to do in order for our

and ranch and land to be

Association Frank and his son Sims (TSCRA) recently awarded have two primary goals for the Frank and Sims Price the operation. First, the 2012 ranch is operated as a self-Outstanding Rangeland sustaining business that is Stewardship Award at the expected to show an annual 136th Annual Cattle profit. Second, but equal, Raisers Convention. The their goal is to leave their award is the highest stew- natural resources in the ardship honor from best possible condition for TSCRA and the Texas the next generations. Section, Society for Range Frank and his wife Ginger and Sims and his wife "We are proud that a Krista are dedicated to TSCRA has earned this "In order for ranching to prestigious honor," said be profitable, we must be Joe Parker, rancher and stewards of our land and TSCRA president. "We resources. It's a responsiapplaud Frank and Sims bility that has been handed and their ability to strike a down for generations," said good balance of profitabil- Sims Price. "Conserving ity and conservation in a and preserving isn't a new challenging, drought-prone concept. It's something all environment. The Prices of us have been doing for true ranch as a partnership, representing the fourth and "What we leave for fifth generations of Prices future generations is really to ranch in West Texas. In important," said Frank a normal year, they receive Price. "The stewardship 18 inches of rainfall. we practice on our ranch These last 2 years have isn't and shouldn't be a been abnormal, with excepmandate. It is part of our tional drought and devasheritage, and we know it's tating wildfires, particu-

(Continued on page 2)

Price Ranch Honored! Frank and Sims Price were recently presented with the 2012 Texas Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association Outstanding Rangeland Stewardship Award at the 136th annual Cattle Raisers Convention.

Community Sunrise Easter Service slated

There will be a community Easter Sunrise Service at 7 am on March 31.

The sunrise service will be held on the lawn of the First United Methodist Church in Robert Lee. The event is hosted by all Robert Lee churches and at 6 pm. This will be a scheduled for 9 am. workshop, so bring any When signing up, you genealogical problem that must let them know if a you need help with to the cart is needed and leave a meeting.

meet Thursday

9:30 am on Thursday, April 661-3431 or 325-864-3312 4, at the City Cafe in or 325-236-0089. Blackwell for a wonderful call back number. For Red Hat Society to more information, contact Bronte Longhorn Golf Club The Red Hat Mamas (Red at 325-473-2156 or 325-473-Hat Society) will meet at 3231. After 5 pm, call 432-

ATTENTION 4-H and FFA

Single Copy 50¢

(USPS 467-480) (ISSN 8750-197X)

everyone is invited to come!

FBC Easter Eggstravaganza set for Saturday

First Baptist Church in Bronte is hosting its 3rd annual Easter Eggstravaganza at the park in Bronte (by the pool) on Saturday, March 30, 2013, from 11 am to 2 pm.

Children can enjoy the bounce houses and game before feasting on free hot dogs at noon. The star of the annual event is the egg hunt at 1 pm.

Genealogy Society to meet Monday

Coke County The Genealogy Society will meet Monday, April 1, at the Coke County Library buffet breakfast.

If you wish to carpool from Bronte we will leave It is time again to order the Bank parking lot by state fair barrow, sheep 9:10.

You are welcome to join If you are planning on this group where there is raising and exhibiting an fun after fifty (and before) animal at the State Fair of for women of all walks of Texas or if you are planlife. What a fun group we ning on raising a steer for are !! Red Hat is one of the the Spring shows in 2014, things that we really look you need to contact the forward to -- no dues, no Coke County Extension rules, no business, no Office at 325-452-2461 by nothing really, but lots of April 12. good fun and fellowship.

Hope to see you there. Bronte Golf

Tourney slated The Bronte Longhorn Rabies Clinic on Saturday, Golf Club is sponsoring a April 13, 2013. The clinic 3 person 27 hole golf tour- will be held from 1 pm to nament on Saturday, April 6, 2013. Tee time is

Members

and goat tags and steer tags.

Rabies clinic set for Robert Lee

The Coke 4-H clubs will be sponsoring the annual (Continued on page 3)