Obituaries

Henry

Our loving mother has passed from this Earth into the loving arms of The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit.

Elizabeth's German parents, Josef and Elisabet Helfrich, were living in Segenthau, Romania, at the time of her birth. When she was about 7 years old her father, Josef, died. Elisabet remarried our grandpa, John Paul. Elizabeth loved him dearly and knew him as Dad.

Elizabeth and her family left Germany for a new world on December 19, 1955, on a ship, the S.S. America, bound for New York, USA. She arrived in this great country on December 28, 1955. She became a travel agent in New York City. She decided to learn about American History and signed up for a class where she met our father, her husband of over 50 years, Robert Louis Henry.

Bob and Liz loved traveling, moving and new adventures. We lived in many different places in the southern part of the US before settling in our home, Texas. They camped with fervor all over the South. Our childhood memories are packed with happiness accumulated on our many camping trips. Family vacations and weekends were spent camping and playing games. Liz would pack up all four kids any free moment and we would explore state parks, lakes and beaches, in earlier years by tent, then graduating to their little bumper-pull camper.

Liz never sat still. She and Dad were faithful Catholics and raised their family in the Christian Faith. During her working years she was the secretary and ran the office at American Air Filters in Dallas. She crocheted, knitted, sewed, was always working on a project, loved plants, animals and science. Liz was much more social than she admitted to and had many friends in Bronte and San Angelo. She even kept in touch with her childhood friends in Germany and called regularly. She enjoyed Mass and her parish family at St. James's Mission in Bronte. Liz loved spending time with her family. Her kids, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren were her life. Until after her 80th birthday she would drive herself back and forth from Bronte to DFW to Lampasas to Possum Kingdom regularly to spend weekends at family get-togethers with whoever had something going on. Liz never missed a family party! She made her last big family camping trip at 81 years old, sleeping in a yurt and using her walker to get around the campfire at Abilene State Park. Everyone made it!

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Henry; her parents, Josef Helfrich, Elisabet and John Paul, and her brother, John Helfrich. She is survived by her children, Kathleen and Manley Morgan of Bronte, Christine Henry and Dean Nuttall of Watauga, Robert Henry II and Jenny Krugh of Mabank, Kevin and Deena Henry of Bedford; grandchildren, Elizabeth and Trey Neal of Lampasas, Amy and Juan Morgan of Lampasas, Jack Henry and Erin Henry of Bedford; great-grandchildren, Ian Neal, Adela Morgan, Luke Neal, and Leo Morgan, all of Lampasas; her brothers, Raymond Paul of Warner Robins, Georgia, Heinz and Marie Paul of Oswego, Illinois; her sister-in-law, Maryann Helfrich, and beloved nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews.

Bob and Liz were married April 11, 1959. There will be a Funeral Mass for both Elizabeth and Robert Henry at St. Michael's Catholic Church, 3713 E. Hardwood Rd, Bedford, TX, 76021, at 11 am on Wednesday, April 11, 2018, the 59th anniversary of their wedding. Following Mass, the interment of the ashes of Elizabeth and Robert Henry will take place in the same columbarium at the DFW National Cemetery, 2000 Mountain Creek Pkwy, Dallas, TX, 75211, at 2:30 pm.
