...Congressional Art Competition

 Additionally, the winning student and a parent or guardian will receive free airfare and accommodations to attend the unveiling ceremony at the Capitol Building in Washington, D.C. this summer.

"I am excited to host the Congressional Art Competition again this year," said Congressman Conaway "This is a fantastic opportunity for students to engage with their artistic talents and compete to win a trip to Washington. Every year, I am inspired by the imaginative and talented artists who enter, and I look forward to bringing another excellent piece up to Washington."

The competition is open to students grades 9-12. Artwork must be two-dimensional, and can range from paintings, to drawings, collages, photographs, and more. Students interested in applying should contact their school's art teacher or principal for information on delivering their artwork for judging. Artwork must be received by one of Congressman Conaway's six regional offices by April 6, 2020.

The Congressman will host a reception at Angelo State University on Saturday, April 25th, where all entries from the 11th District will be displayed, and the winner of the competition will be announced.

For specific details regarding the rules of the competition, please call Nancy Watson at (325) 247-2826, or email her at Nancy.Watson@mail.house.gov
