Road closing slated for Dripping Springs low water crossing

Beginning Monday, April 4, 2022, construction will begin on the renovation project for the Dripping Springs low water crossing at Edith, Texas. The road through Dripping Springs will be closed, and traffic will be re-routed through Fields Lane and Collier Road. Construction time for this project has been estimated from two to four weeks. The public's cooperation is requested during this construction period.

For additional information, please contact the Coke County Judge's office at (325) 453-2641.

Grand Openings!
Saturday, March 26, 2022, was a big day in Bronte, as residents were able to celebrate the grand opening of one new business and tour the new location of an existing business. Blackburn's Ranch & Hardware Supply (top photo), located on State Street, hosted a grand opening with food, music, and more. Bronte Guns & Tackle unveiled their new expanded location at the corner of State and Main streets. See page 3 of this issue of The Observer/Enterprise for more photos from the events.

April 2. Republic Services will begin early so residents are asked to please have their items set out by Friday night.

For more information, call City Hall at (325) 473-3501.
