...RL City Council meeting

She was opposed on this by Blevins and several members of the audience who had personal knowledge of the order of events.

Council Member Ann Hedges made a motion to terminate Blevins employment with the City of Robert Lee, seconded by Council Member Ricky Green. Brosh joined in with an affirmative vote. Blevins immediately left the building. At this point, the billing clerk resigned, turned in keys and equipment, and left the building. Mayor Crenshaw returned and began to once again preside over the meeting. City Attorney Betty addressed the council and offered his resignation, which they declined. A voice from the audience told him to leave and Betty suggested they meet outside. Upon that challenge, Sheriff Wayne McCutchen stepped in to advise Betty against statements like that and there was a sharp exchange between the sheriff and the attorney.

The election is set for Saturday, May 4, 2019. There are three two year terms and one one-year unexpired term on the ballot. Brosh’s seat is not up for election this time. However, both Green and Hedges are on the ballot seeking re-election. They are joined for the two year terms by Manuel Abalos, David Lewis, Tracy Grantham, Jason Moran, and Becca Skinner. Wyatt Hopson and Zach Van Tine are on the ballot for the one year unexpired term.

Citizen Comments

“I ask for the immediate resignation of City Attorney Jeff Betty for providing advice to the Robert Lee City Council which proved to be unlawful.

As an example of this bad advice, I note the blessing he provided to the remaining members of the council at the February 4, 2019, meeting following the resignations of Janie Munoz and Roger Alexander. By law, the meeting should have been adjourned as soon as the two members resigned. However, Betty assured Council it was still legal since they began with a quorum.

As citizens of Robert Lee, we must be concerned with the counsel our city elected officials are receiving.”

“I am asking you to table any personnel decisions on tonight’s agenda.

The discrepancies rumored were due to reports of accounts not being complete and reconciled in a timely fashion by the previous administration and no longer exist. In the email regarding the media, no information was given by the City Secretary that wasn’t already a part of the open public record from the published agenda.

Your actions have now brought the attention of not one, but two investigators from the Attorney General’s office.

If you choose to fire the secretary, it will appear that you are acting for the mayor’s benefit to deflect blame from the mayor should she decide not to take a plea, but go to trial. That termination will not only be detrimental to the City of Robert Lee, but also to each of you personally since you could be sued individually as well.

I sincerely request you to reconsider and leave this decision to the council in which voters place their trust in an election just over three weeks away.”

“Based on the previous city staff stealing from the city by not being charged the full amount and not being charged a disconnect fee for non payment of their utility balance, I would like to see Brandi Brosh’s past utility payment and charge history while employed with the City of Robert Lee. If she was part of the past corruption, she has no business being on city council.

I would also like to know why you are so determined to fire Crystal Blevins. The mess this office was in when Crystal took over could not be put back together overnight. You can’t just start when you take office and go forward if it is not in balance. You have to go back and reconcile from the first day it didn’t balance and work forward. That can take a lot of time.

How long did we go without someone who knew what they were doing in this office?

I think you all need to reconsider the firing of Crystal. Who are you going to hire, who is going to run the election? Allyson?? You know that will be a fair election!

I request that Mayor Allyson Crenshaw resign today for the good of the City of Robert Lee.”
