

CARD OF THANKS

WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK

each one individually for your kind acts of love and sympathy done for the family of Winnie Pitcock at the time of her passing. But, that would be impossible. There were so many who took the time to give a hug, say a kind word, make a phone call, bring food and send a card. There were so many acts of love and sympathy shown to us at this time and you will never know how much each kindness shown and love expressed was appreciated by the family.

We especially would like to thank the ladies of Robert Lee Baptist Church for the wonderful meal you provided for the family. You worked overtime to see that we had food and were cared for at this time.

The Robert Lee Care Center, if only you knew how grateful we are for the excellent care that our Mother received from all of you, Administrator, office ladies, nurses, CNA's, dietary, housekeeping, and laundry. We can never thank you enough for giving the outstanding care for our Mother.

Thank every one of you for reaching out to us during our time of loss. May God Bless each of you with His greatest Blessings.
